Celebrating 23 Years of Excellence in High School Theatre

ELIGIBILITY

Interested and eligible schools should submit applications as soon as possible.

Applications are due by 5:00 PM, Friday, September 22, 2023.

1. Schools located within Tarrant, Johnson, Hood, Parker, Denton, Wise, Ellis, and Dallas Counties are eligible to participate. Schools that have previously taken part in the Buckley Awards are also invited to participate.
2. All performances must occur from Friday, September 29, 2023 – Sunday, April 7, 2024.
3. Schools may submit up to 2 productions (Musical or Play). If applying for more than one production, please list them in order of preference. The first choice is guaranteed, and the second choice will be granted by availability in order of applications received.
4. If more than one production is selected from your school, 2 entrance fees will apply.
5. Please Note: Starting in the 2024-2025 season, each participating school will be required to have one matinee performance.

ENTRANCE FEE

The entrance fee is determined on a tiered basis based on the following:

Tier I: $175.00 per selected production

Schools that are classified as a Title I.

School must not be a private or charter school.

Tier II: $225.00 per selected production

Schools that do not fall within Tier I.

All private and charter schools.

1. The entrance fee must be paid via a check made payable to Casa Mañana, Inc. All payment is due within 1 month of acceptance. All entrance fees are non-refundable. We are unable to adjudicate productions with outstanding payments.
2. Once accepted, participating schools must submit a completed Production Details form on our website and (for musicals) a musician list NO LATER THAN 1 WEEK BEFORE OPENING NIGHT. Failure to do so may result in your production's ineligibility for awards. If the production is double cast, only 1 CAST will be adjudicated.

ELIGIBILITY FOR NOMINATIONS

Only students in grades 9th through 12th are eligible for consideration.

Merit is not based on budget size or adult involvement.

While productions may have teacher/adult guidance, please note:

ALL CONSIDERATION FOR ANY BUCKLEY AWARD ULTIMATELY RESTS ON THE STUDENTS' STRENGTHS AND ABILITIES ALONE.

1. FOR PERFORMANCE: UP TO 6 STUDENT PERFORMANCES PER PRODUCTION are eligible for adjudication in both lead or supporting roles (ex: three lead roles and three supporting roles). Performers must be in grades 9th-12th to be considered. Schools are not obligated to fill all 6 slots for consideration but ONLY 6 ROLES MAX are to be adjudicated per production.

Directors will determine lead and supporting roles for their production based on the following criteria:

- MUSICALS: All eligible LEAD roles are defined by the Jimmy Award guidelines. (www.jimmyawards.com) Any lead role must have a name, at least 1 solo, a featured song, and appearances in more than 1 scene with spoken dialogue with other leading or featured performers. Lead roles must appear in all acts. All eligible SUPPORTING roles must have a name, 1 solo (either in a featured song or group number), and significant spoken dialogue with others.
 - PLAYS: All eligible LEAD roles must have a name and considerable dialogue with other leading or featured performers in more than 1 scene. Lead roles must appear in all acts. All eligible SUPPORTING roles must have a name and significant spoken dialogue with other performers.
2. FOR STUDENT ORCHESTRA (in a musical production only): To be considered for the Student Orchestra award, an orchestra may be no more than 20% adults (including the conductor). Schools will provide a list of ALL musicians involved, indicating whether they are students or adults, as part of their submitted Production Details.
 3. FOR STAGE MANAGEMENT: A collaborative group of UP TO 3 STUDENTS may submit for a single nomination. To be considered for Stage Management, you must submit a prompt book containing the following: 1.) cue sheets, 2.) blocking diagrams, 3.) costume plot, 4.) light plot, 5.) prop list, 6.) 1 rehearsal report, 7.) 1 production report, 8.) script, and any other relevant paperwork as part of your submitted Production Details. Students may have teacher/adult guidance, but all responsibility of execution must fall to the students ALONE.
 4. FOR ALL DESIGN CATEGORIES INCLUDING CHOREOGRAPHY: A collaborative group of UP TO 3 STUDENTS may submit for a single nomination. To be considered for any design category, you must submit a portfolio containing the following: 1.) any renderings, 2.) plots, 3.) photos of process and/or production, and 4.) any other information relevant to the design as part of your submitted Production Details. Students may have teacher/adult guidance, but all design and responsibility of execution must fall to the students ALONE. Dance Captains and assistants cannot be considered for nomination.

THE ADJUDICATION PROCESS

1. Each production will be evaluated by a panel of 3 judges. In some circumstances, there may be a need for a judge to view a video submission of the performance. Please ensure a video recording of the show will be available in a timely manner. Again, should your production be double cast, only 1 cast will be adjudicated.
2. Each school will receive an electronic copy of the judges' comments following the production's final performance and submission of the post-adjudication form. Each criterion will be scored from 25 – 1. These scores will determine the final nominees.
21-25: "Excellent"
16-20: "Exceeds expectations"
11-15: "Meets expectations"
6-10: "Needs improvement"
1-5: "Room for growth"
3. All criteria are adjudicated along the following guidelines:

4. Video Recordings, Time Stamps, and Photography. All adjudicated productions must submit a Post-Adjudication form on our website within 2 weeks of your final performance containing your production video, timestamps, and photography.
 5. Each school is responsible for submitting an accessible video link of their full production. The link may be to either a private YouTube video or a Google Drive. Please provide an HD quality video since selections from your video may also be used during the awards ceremony.
 6. With your video, please submit a list of time stamps for all eligible categories as explained below.
 - EXCELLENCE IN A MUSICAL AND ORCHESTRA: A full ensemble number.
 - EXCELLENCE IN A PLAY: Up to 5 minutes of showcasing production.
 - ALL PERFORMANCE CATEGORIES: Up to 2 minutes of song/scene showcasing the nominee.
 - ALL DESIGN CATEGORIES: Up to 2 minutes showcasing each design element.We will not send judge comments until we have received your Post-Adjudication form.
 7. All schools will be responsible for submitting high resolution image files of the following in addition to the Production Video:
 - Production photos for lighting, scenic, costume and choreography categories along with designer portfolios, if the school qualifies for student submissions in these categories.
 8. Betty Lynn Buckley Awards Program Ad. Casa Mañana requires all schools to place the provided ad in the printed and digital program for adjudicated productions. The ad serves to promote the high school as one of the schools involved in the Betty Lynn Buckley Awards. Casa Mañana will provide the artwork. If interested, Casa Mañana can also provide artwork for our Casa Mañana School for Musical Theatre and TYA/Broadway season.

NOMINATIONS

1. A preliminary nomination list will be sent to the contact person listed on the original application as close to Monday, April 15, 2024, as possible.
2. Once nomination emails are sent, schools will have 24 hours to submit spelling corrections to buckleys@casamanana.org before announcing nominations on Casa Mañana's social media.
3. Schools must not announce nominations before the information is made public through Casa Mañana.
